

Hymn do Trójcy Świętej
(Hymn to the Holy Trinity)

POLISH

Throughout its history, Poland has suffered countless wars that have repeatedly threatened its existence; through these dark periods of foreign occupation, it is only through faith, deeply rooted in Catholicism, that Polish culture has survived. The Hymn do Trójcy Świętej is an embodiment of that faith; a reminder that, with each dawn, the return of light brings with it an indescribable spiritual salvation that banishes even the darkest night.

Już słońce wschodzi ogniste
Ty jedność, światło wieczyste
W sercach naszych, Trójco Święta
Rozlej miłość niepojętą.
Ciebie my z rana wielbimy
Ciebie wieczorem prosimy
Racz to sprawić byśmy Ciebie
Z Świętymi chwalili w niebie.
Ojcu razem i Synowi
Świętemu także duchowi
Jak była, tak niechaj wszędzie
Wieczna chwała zawsze będzie. Amen.

The blazing sun is rising
You are the unity, eternal light
In our Hearts, Holy Trinity
Spread the inconceivable love.
We adore Thee in the morning
We beg Thee in the evening
Bring us to Thee
With the Saints in heaven adored.
Together Father and Son
And the Holy Spirit
As there was, and ever will be
Eternal Glory, always and forever. Amen.
